 - 2.4.6 sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Chamber;
 - 2.4.7 borrow and raise money and secure its repayment in any manner;
 - 2.4.8 invest the funds of the Chamber in or upon such investments, securities, or property as may be thought fit;
 - 2.4.9 undertake and execute any trusts or any agency business which may seem conducive to any of the principal objects;
 - 2.4.10 to establish and support, and to aid in the establishment and support of, any other association formed to promote all or any of the principal objects;

- 2.4.11 amalgamate with any companies, institutions, societies, or associations having objects wholly or in part similar to those of the Chamber;
- 2.4.12 purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of any body with which the Chamber is authorised to amalgamate;
- 2.4.13 transfer all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of the Chamber to anybody with which the Chamber is authorised to amalgamate;
- 2.4.14 do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the pursuit or to the attainment of any of the principal objects;
- 2.4.15 alter or amend any of the above powers and/or objects of the Chamber as and when the Chamber deems necessary.

3.0 LIMITATION OF PRIVATE BENEFITS

- 3.1. The income and property of the Chamber, from wherever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects.

4.0 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 4.1. The liability of the members is limited.
- 4.2. Every Member of the Chamber undertakes to contribute to its assets, in the event of its being wound up while they are a Member or within one year after they cease to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Chamber, contracted before he ceased to be a Member and of the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of contributories among themselves such amount as may be required not exceeding £2.00.

5.0 MEMBERS

General

- 5.1. The number of members is unlimited.
- 5.2. The Directors may establish different classes of membership and decide their privileges, duties and subscriptions.
- 5.3. The annual subscription to the Chamber shall be at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by the Board and shall become due and payable in advance on such date or dates as the Board may from time to time determine. For the purpose of fixing the annual subscriptions the Board may by By-law or otherwise from time to time divide Members into categories and fix different rates of subscription for different categories.
- 5.4. Membership of the Chamber is not transferable. The interest and rights of a Member are organisational only and not transferable or transmissible on death or liquidation.
- 5.5. The Chamber shall keep a register of members in accordance with the Companies Acts.
- 5.6. Members shall be entitled to vote at meetings of the Chamber in accordance with the subsequent provisions of these Articles.

Application for Membership

- 5.7 Membership shall be open to:
- (a) individuals who are in business on their own account;
 - (b) companies, corporations, firms and other organisations engaged or interested in commerce, industry, trade and business support services and education;
 - (c) members of professions who have an interest in commerce, industry, trade and business support services and education;
 - (d) any other individuals, companies, corporations, firms or other organisations whom the Board may in its absolute discretion admit to membership.
- 5.8 All applications for membership shall be made in writing or completed via the Chamber website in digital form in such form (containing an undertaking to be bound by the Constitution of the Chamber and such information about the applicant and its business and, if a corporate body, its directors and/or other officers and ownership) as the Board may in its absolute discretion from time to time prescribe.
- 5.9 The Board will operate fair and legal procedures for dealing with the approval of applications and may refuse any application without giving reason. Delivery of the application to the Chamber shall be accompanied by the amount of the entrance fee (if any) from time to time determined by the Board unless the Board determines that this amount may be paid at a later date. The Board may determine different entrance fees for different categories of Member.

Categories of Membership

- 5.10 The Board may establish such classes of associate membership with such description and wish such rights and obligations (including without limitation the obligation to pay a subscription) as they think fit and may admit and remove such associate members in accordance with such regulations as the Board shall make, provided that no such associate members shall be members of the Chamber for the purposes of the Articles or the Companies Acts.

Honorary Membership

- 5.11 The Chamber Board may admit to Honorary Membership of the Chamber to persons or organisations either within Staffordshire or outside of the Staffordshire area for such period as it may determine providing that they are;
- (a) individuals whom the Board considers are distinguished in statesmanship, diplomacy, commerce, industry, trade and business support services and education;
 - (b) individuals whom the Board considers have rendered special service to the Chamber or to the Chamber Network.
- 5.12 An Honorary Member shall receive notice of and shall be entitled to attend all General Meetings to speak and vote. An Honorary Member shall be required to sign an application for membership and to pay any fees or subscriptions if appropriate and said fees have been set by the Board and shall be deemed to be a Member liable to contribute any amount on the winding-up of the Chamber. An Honorary Member shall not be eligible for election or appointment to the Board.

Resignation and Removal of Members

- 5.13 A member may at any time resign from the Chamber by giving notice in writing 30 days before his/her subscription shall next be due. If no such notice is received and unless the Board resolves otherwise the Member may be liable for the subscription for the ensuing year which shall be a debt due to and legally recoverable by the Chamber.

- 5.14 A Member shall not be entitled to a refund of any monies paid to the Chamber upon ceasing to be a member for any reason whatsoever.
- 5.15 Unless the Board shall resolve otherwise, a person shall automatically cease to be a Member if;
- (a) being an individual, he dies, becomes bankrupt, makes an arrangement or composition with his creditors or is convicted of an indictable offence;
 - (b) being an individual, an order is made in relation to his personal welfare or property and affairs under legislation relating to mental health or mental capacity; or
 - (c) in the case of a corporate member, a resolution is passed or an order is made for its winding up or it is placed in liquidation or it ceases to exist.
- 5.16 The Board may at any time by Majority Resolution expel any Member for such reason as they think fit (including without limitation non-payment of amounts other than subscriptions which may be due from him/her to the Chamber, breach of the Articles or any By-laws of the Chamber and conduct which in the opinion of a majority of the Board makes him/her no longer acceptable as a Member of the Chamber) at any time provided that:
- (a) not less than fourteen days' notice of the proposed resolution and of the matters giving rise to the proposed resolution have been given to the Member concerned; and
 - (b) the Member concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity to make representations and to attend or be represented at the meeting of the Board called to consider the case and to be heard in defence.
- 5.17 Any Member so expelled shall lose all privileges of membership without prejudice to any claims that the Chamber may have, but the Board by resolution may re-admit to membership any Member so expelled at such time and on such terms as it may determine.

6.0 ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Eligibility of who can attend

- 6.1 Each year the Chamber must hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting. The notice calling the meeting must say that the meeting is the annual general meeting.
- 6.2 There must not be a gap of more than 15 months between the date of one annual general meeting and the next.
- 6.3 Subject as above, Directors will decide when and where to hold the annual general meeting.

Other General Meetings

- 6.4 The Directors can decide to call a general meeting (other than an annual general meeting) at any time. Such general meetings will also be called in response to a requisition by no less than 10 members under the Companies Act 2006. If the Directors do not comply with any such requisition, the people making it can call the meeting themselves under the Companies Act 2006.
- 6.5 If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient number of Directors to call a general meeting, any Director of the Chamber may call it.

7.0 NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Normal Notice

7.1 At least 21 days' clear notice in writing must be given for every annual general meeting and for any other meeting where it is proposed to pass a special resolution. The day when the notice is served or is treated as served and the day of the meeting do not count in the period of notice.

For every other general meeting, at least 14 clear days' notice in writing must be given. Any notice must say:

- a) where the meeting is to be held;
- b) the date and time of the meeting; and
- c) the nature of any special business for the meeting.

Shorter Notice

7.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:

7.2.1 in the case of an annual general meeting, by all members entitled to attend and vote; and

7.2.2 in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority together holding not less than 90% of the total voting rights at the meetings of all the members.

To Whom Notices Should be Given

7.3 Notice of general meetings shall be given to all members, the Directors, the Council Members, the auditors and any Honorary Members either:

- a) by delivering by hand to the last known address. If a notice is delivered by hand, it is treated as being delivered at the time it is handed to or left for the member, Honorary Member, Council member or Auditors.
- b) by sending it by post or other delivery service in an envelope (with postage or delivery paid) to the last known address. If a notice is sent by post or other delivery service, it shall be deemed given at the expiration of 48 hours.
- c) by electronic communication to an address notified to the Chamber. If a notice is sent by Electronic Communication, it is treated as being delivered at the time it was sent; or
- d) by a website the address of which shall be notified to the Member, Honorary Member, Council Member or Auditor in writing. If a notice is sent by a website, it is treated as being delivered when the material was first made available on the website, or if later, when the recipient received (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material was available on the website.

Contents of notice

7.4 Every notice calling a general meeting must specify the place, day and time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted.

7.5 If a special resolution is to be proposed, the notice must include the proposed resolution and specify that it is proposed as a special resolution.

7.6 In every notice calling a meeting of the Chamber there must appear with reasonable prominence a statement informing the member of his/her or their rights to appoint another person as his/her or its proxy at a meeting of the Chamber.

- 7.7 If the Chamber gives an electronic Address in a notice calling a meeting, it will be deemed to have agreed that any Document or information relating to proceedings at the meeting may be sent by Electronic Means to that Address (subject to any conditions or limitations specified in the notice).

Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 7.8 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 7.9 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of the consideration of the accounts and balance sheet and the reports of the Board and the auditors, the election of members of the Board and the Council and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

8.0 PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum

- 8.1 Before a meeting starts to do business, there must be a quorum present. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. Ten persons entitled to vote upon the business being transacted, each being a Member, or a person connected with a Member or a proxy for a Member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation, shall be a quorum.
- 8.2 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Board may determine, and, if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present in person or through a person connected with a Member or by proxy or by duly authorised representative shall be a quorum. Where a quorum is not so or ceases to be so present at a meeting convened on the requisition of the Members the meeting shall be dissolved.

Chairing general meetings

- 8.3 The President or in his/her absence the Deputy President or in his/her absence the Honorary Treasurer or in his/her absence some other member of the Board nominated by the Board shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the President nor any such other person be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the members of the Board present shall elect one of their number to be chairman and if there is only one member of the Board present and willing to act he/she shall be chairman.
- 8.4 If no member of the Board is willing to act as chairman, or if no member of the Board is present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present in person or by proxy or duly authorised representative shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- 8.5 The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

9.0 VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Voting: General

- 9.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Acts, a poll may be demanded:
- (a) by the chairman; or
 - (b) by at least five Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) by a person as proxy for or duly authorised representative of or a person connected with a Member which shall be the same as a demand by a Member.
- 9.2 No Member shall have the right to receive notice of or to send a representative to or to vote at any meeting or exercise any other rights of membership whether conferred by these articles or otherwise if it is more than three months in arrears with the payment of any of its affiliation.
- 9.3 Members of the Board and of the Council shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting notwithstanding that they are not Members of the Chamber or persons connected with a Member or proxies or duly authorised representative of a Member.

Votes on a show of hands

- 9.4 On a vote on a resolution which is carried out by a show of hands, the following persons have one vote each:
- (a) each member present in person; and
 - (b) (subject to Article 9.2) each proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more persons entitled to vote on the resolution; and
 - (c) each authorised representative of a Member present;
- 9.5 Provided that if a person attending the meeting falls within two or more of the above categories, he or she is not entitled to cast more than one vote but shall instead have a maximum of one vote.

Votes on a poll

- 9.6 Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 9.7 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 9.8 A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 9.9 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for the poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

- 9.10 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 9.11 On a show of hands every Member who (being an individual) is present in person or by proxy or (being a company, corporation, firm or other organisation) is present by a proxy or a duly authorised representative or a person connected with a Member, not being him/herself a Member entitled to vote, shall have one vote and on a poll every Member shall have one vote. In all cases the chairman of the general meeting shall have the right to vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, may also exercise a casting vote, whether taken on a show of hands or poll.
- 9.12 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- 9.13 On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by a person connected with a Member or by proxy or duly authorised representative.
- 9.14 Any vote given or poll demanded by a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the termination was received by the Secretary before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) was received by the Chairman, the Secretary or any Director at the time appointed for taking the poll.

10.0 DIRECTORS

The Board

- 10.1 The Board is the governing body of the Chamber and is responsible for agreeing the strategy of the business and monitoring performance. Any resolutions of the Council shall be advisory only and shall not in any way restrict the powers of the Board.

Board Composition

- 10.2 Unless otherwise determined by special resolution the Board shall comprise a maximum of 14 Directors as follows:
- (a) The President
 - (b) Deputy President
 - (c) Honorary Treasurer
 - (d) Staffordshire Moorlands Chamber President
 - (e) Stafford Chamber President
 - (f) the Chief Executive of the Chamber;
 - (g) up to eight elected members of either the Chamber Council and/or the Local Area Boards; or

- (d) such person (not necessarily being a person who is, or represents, a Member of the Chamber), as the Board may select as being competent to advise on the needs of the business at the time.

10.3 The Board may appoint any member of the Chamber (whether an individual or a representative Member of a corporate or unincorporated Member of the Chamber) to be a member of the Board to fill a casual vacancy. Any person so appointed shall hold office to the conclusion of the next following Annual General meeting but shall be eligible for re-election.

Appointment And Removal of Directors

10.4 At the first meeting of the Chamber Council after each annual general meeting of the Chamber the following shall occur;

10.4.1 the directors holding the posts specified in Article 10.2 (g) shall retire but still, subject to these Articles, be eligible for reappointment;

10.4.2 where applicable the Chamber Council shall appoint the President and Deputy President provided that a person shall not serve more than two 2-year terms as President or Deputy President unless such a reappointment is authorised by a resolution of the Council prior to each further term commencing.

10.4.3 the Chamber Council shall ratify and approve any nominations received from its members, including those elected, Forum and Section Chairs and/or elected members of the Local Area Boards to fill the positions specified in Article 10.2.

10.5 The following provisions shall apply in respect of the election of Chamber members to the Board;

(a) Only members of the Chamber Council, Local Area Boards or persons appointed to fill casual board vacancies arising amongst such elected Members shall be entitled to be elected.

(b) The total number of members so elected to the Board shall not at any time exceed 8.

(c) Within 21 days but not less than 7 days prior to each Annual General Meeting there shall be sent to every member of the Chamber Council and Local Area Boards a list of the members of the Board and whether or not they are willing to stand for re-election.

(d) Any individual member of the Chamber Council and/or an individual member of either Local Area Boards and/or an Forum and Section Chair may stand for election to the Board providing that:

i. they are eligible for election;

ii. they are, for a minimum period of at least 1 year, a Member of the Council and/or a Member of a Local Area Board;

iii. they are a senior figure within their respective organisation;

iv. they have been nominated on the official nomination paper kept at the registered office of the Chamber and such nomination paper must be lodged at the registered office of the Chamber not more than 14 days after the date of circulation of such list (the first nomination date); and

v. Each candidate must have signed the nomination form. In the case of a member of the Chamber who is a nominated representative of either an incorporated or unincorporated body which is a Member of the Chamber, there shall be entered on the nomination paper, in addition to the name of the candidate, his position in the body concerned.

- (e) If the number of candidates nominated for election to the Board does not exceed the number of vacancies, such candidates shall on the first working day after the first nomination date be certified in writing by the President as the new Board to replace the former Board as from that date.
 - (f) If the number of candidates nominated for election exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, the Company Secretary shall, not later than 7 days after the first nomination date, issue voting papers to those members of the Council and Local Area Boards who are eligible to vote and such papers shall be returned to the Company Secretary not more than 14 days after the date of issue, failing which they will be invalid.
 - i. Voting papers shall contain the same particulars as are required to be specified in the nomination papers.
 - ii. Each Council and Local Area Board member who is so entitled to vote may vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled and no more than one single voting paper shall contain more than one vote for each candidate. The provisions of Article 10.5 (e) and (f) shall apply with "Board" substituted for "Council" wherever the latter shall appear.
 - (g) Each member of the Chamber Council or Local Area Board who shall be elected to the Board in accordance with the foregoing provisions and shall hold office (subject as hereinafter mentioned) for a period of three years but shall be eligible for re-election for a successive 3 year term. After holding office as a director for six years, a director shall retire and shall not then be eligible for re-election for the further period of three years.
 - i. Provided always that at each Annual General Meeting one third of the Board who have been elected in accordance with the foregoing provisions, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one third, shall retire from office.
 - ii. Such members of the Board who are to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment but as between persons who became or were last reappointed members of the Board on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree amongst themselves) be determined by lot.
 - (h) Chamber Council Members who shall be elected to the Board will automatically have their term in office on Council terminated. Chamber Council Members who shall be elected to the Chamber Board continue to attend Council Meetings in their new function as a Board Member.
 - (i) Local Area Board Members who shall be elected to the Chamber Board will continue to serve their existing term in office concurrently with their new term in office on the Chamber Board. Once their Local Area Board term in office expires, they will be subject to re-election or retirement. This does not affect their new term in office on the Board.
 - (j) Forum Chairs and Section Chairs who shall be elected to the Chamber Board will continue to serve their existing term in office (subject to separate by-laws and/or specific terms of reference) concurrently with their new term in office on the Chamber Board. Once their Local Area Board term in office expires, they will be subject to re-election or retirement. This does not affect their new term in office on the Board.
 - (k) Each member of the Chamber Council or Local Area board who shall be elected to the Board in accordance with the foregoing provisions who ceases to be a member of the Chamber shall automatically cease to be a Board member.
- 10.6 Each Director (unless appointed under the next article) shall be nominated by the members of the Chamber Council and/or Local Area Boards at a Council meeting held prior to the Annual General Meeting and shall be ratified at the Annual General Meeting.

- 10.7 The Directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director, providing that the appointment does not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the articles as the maximum number of directors. Such director shall be subject to re-election at the next meeting of the Chamber Council after the subsequent AGM.

11.0 DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- 11.1 Any Director will cease to be a Director in any of the following circumstances:

- 11.1.1 if a bankruptcy order is made against him;
- 11.1.2 if he makes an arrangement or composition with his creditors;
- 11.1.3 if an order is made in relation to that Director's personal welfare or property and affairs under legislation relating to mental health or mental capacity;
- 11.1.4 if he has missed 3 Directors' meetings for a continuous period, without permission from the Directors and the Directors pass a resolution stating that he has ceased to be a Director; he/she is absent for more than three consecutive meetings;
 - i. submitting apologies does not count as having permission for absence from the Council meeting.
- 11.1.5 if he is prohibited from being a Director by an order made under the Companies Acts or any other legislation;
- 11.1.6 if he is directly or indirectly interested in any contract with the Chamber and fails to declare the nature of his interest in a manner required by the Act or these Articles.

Disqualification From Acting as Auditor

- 11.2 A Director can act for the Chamber professionally, either alone or through his firm. He and his firm can be paid for professional services as though he were not a Director. However, a Director cannot also be the Chamber's auditor or involved in the business of the Chamber's auditor.

12.0 DECLARATION OF INTEREST

- 12.1 A Director who is to his knowledge any way directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Chamber or has any other material interest shall declare the nature of his interest to the Board in a manner required by the Act. Any such Director having made such a declaration shall not be entitled to vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract in which he is interested but may be counted in the quorum present at the meeting at which such contract or proposed contract is discussed.

- 12.2 For the purposes of Article 12.1:

- a) a general notice to the Board that a Director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice of any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and;
- b) an interest of which the Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

- 12.3 A Board member shall not vote at meetings of the Board or of any committee of the Board in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he/she is interested, and if he/she shall do so his vote shall not be counted, nor shall he/she be counted in the quorum present at the meeting, but neither of these prohibitions shall apply to:

- (a) any arrangement for giving any Board member any security or indemnity in respect of money lent by him/her to or obligations undertaken by him/her for the benefit of the Chamber; or
- (b) any arrangement for the giving by the Chamber of any security to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Chamber for which the Board member him/herself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity of by the deposit of a security; or
- (c) any contract or arrangement with any other company in which he is interested only as an officer of the company or as a member of that company provided his interest does not comprise a beneficial interest in one per cent or more of the equity share capital (directly or indirectly) and he does not personally receive any direct benefit from the contract.

13.0 POWERS OF DIRECTORS

- 13.1 The Directors shall manage the business of the Chamber. They may exercise all of the Chamber's powers and, when they are acting for the Chamber, the Directors can do anything that the Chamber can do. But in both cases, this does not apply where the Articles or the Companies Act say that powers can only be used by the members voting to do so at a general meeting.
- 13.2 The Directors may exercise any power conferred by the Act to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Chamber or any of its subsidiaries in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Chamber or that subsidiary. No alteration of the Constitution and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Directors by the Constitution and a meeting of Directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Directors.
- 13.3 The Directors may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Chamber for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine, including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his powers.
- 13.4 The Directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of at least one Board member and such other persons, whether or not Board members, as the Board may think fit. They may also delegate to the Chief Executive such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by him/her. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Directors may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of the Directors so far as they are capable of applying.
- 13.5 In the management of the business of the Chamber the Directors shall ensure that the Council and Committees of the Council are provided with such facilities (including secretarial assistance) as are reasonably required to enable the Council to carry out its functions and particularly its functions concerning representational matters.
- 13.6 No Non-Executive Director shall be entitled to remuneration for his services as a Director.

14.0 PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

- 14.1 Board shall meet together at least five times a year for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as it thinks fit. The Company Secretary shall on the request in writing of any Board member summon a meeting of the Board by notice served on the members of the Board.
- 14.2 The President of the Chamber shall preside at all meetings of the Board. If the President be not present within five minutes after the time appointed for the meeting of the Board the Deputy President, if any and if present, shall preside; but if there be no Deputy President present, the Board members then present shall choose one of their number to take the chair at that meeting of the Board.
- 14.3 Deputy Presidents of Local Area Boards may attend Chamber Board meetings when invited. In addition, on not more than two occasions may a Deputy Local Area Board President deputise for the Local Area Board President, this includes the Presidents' voting rights.
- 14.4 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of the Board shall be four. Unless otherwise specified in these Articles questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
- 14.5 A meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretions by or under these articles vested for the time being in the Board. Where the interests of a Local Area Board have a different emphasis than the interests of the Staffordshire Chambers as a whole, the Board will ensure that a full discussion is undertaken, and a consensus view is agreed. The Board will remain empathetic to the interests of Local Area Boards and Forums.
- 14.6 All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Board or by any person acting as a Board member shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any Board meeting or Board members or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Board member.
- 14.7 The Board members for the time being may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided that if their number is below four, the remaining Board member may act for the purposes of filling vacancies on the Board or convening a general meeting but for no other purpose.
- 14.8 A resolution in writing signed by all the Board members shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and constituted and may consist of several instruments in the like form signed by or on behalf of one or more Board members.

Limitations

- 14.8 The Directors are always subject to:
- 14.8.1 the provisions of the Companies Acts;
 - 14.8.2 the requirements of the Articles; and
 - 14.8.3 any regulations or directions laid down by the members by a vote at a general meeting or written resolution providing that those regulations or directions are consistent with the Companies Acts and the Articles. However, if the members lay down any regulation or direction relating to something which the Directors have already done which was within their powers, this regulation or direction cannot invalidate the Directors' previous action.

15.0 COUNCIL

- 15.1 The functions and powers of the Council shall be: -
- (a) to appoint the Non-executive Directors officer positions of the Chamber;
 - (b) to approve and ratify not more than 8 members of the Board in accordance with the provisions of Articles;
 - (c) to propose subjects for consideration by the Board;
 - (d) to give consideration to and discuss matters which the Board has submitted to the Council;
 - (e) to request the Board to reconsider proposals or decisions of the Board;
 - (f) to identify and advise on major issues affecting the Staffordshire area;
 - (g) to be recognised as the business forum of the Staffordshire area and as such at its meetings and through the work of the Chamber's committees and otherwise to collect represent and promote the interests views and opinions of the Members and of the business community generally interpreting to the best of its ability the true interests of the Chamber and its Members.
- 15.2 The Council shall be composed of: -
- (a) Elected Members - Such number (each of whom shall be an individual who is a Member or a person connected with a Member) (being not fewer than 24 nor more than 36 as the Chamber may in general meeting elect or as the Council may elect from time to time as additional elected members of the Council until the number of elected members reaches the maximum number of 36 (any such additional members to retire in accordance with the Articles in the order determined by the Council). Up to 4 elected places on the Council shall be reserved for representatives from divisional Chambers (Stafford and Staffordshire Moorlands).
 - (b) such individuals (each of whom shall be an individual who is a Member, or a person connected with a Member) as maybe co-opted by the Council to fill a casual vacancy among the Elected Councillors to serve until the Elected Councillor whose place he has filled would have retired.
 - (c) Ex-Officio Members – each past president of the Staffordshire Chambers for a period of 6 years after ceasing to be President; and the current Chairmen of all Forum and Sections of the Chamber.
 - (d) Honorary Members of Council – not more than 8 Members appointed by the Council to represent such trade, professional and other organisations as the Council may from time to time determine.
 - (e) Honorary Officers of the Chamber including the President, Deputy President, Local Area Board Presidents, and Treasurer.
- 15.3 No Councillor (except those who are also Directors in accordance with these Articles) shall be or be deemed to be or act as a director or shadow director of the Chamber.
- 15.4 At each Annual General Meeting of the Members one-third of the Elected Councillors (or, if this is not a whole number, the nearest whole number) shall retire from office as Elected Councillors, but each shall be eligible for re-election.
- 15.5 Those to retire under the preceding Article shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or re-appointment, but as between persons who became or were last re-appointed Elected Councillors those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree amongst themselves) be determined by lot.

- 15.6 Each Council member shall be appointed by the members for a term of 3 years and will then be subject to re-election for a maximum further term of 3 years. After holding office as a Council member for 6 years, the member shall not be eligible for re-election for a further period of 3 years.
- (a) Eight weeks at least prior to the Annual General Meeting there shall be sent to every Member of the Chamber a list of the elected members of the Council, which shall indicate those who are to retire that year and are eligible for re-election.
 - (b) Candidates for election other than retiring Members must be nominated on the official nomination paper kept at the registered office of the Chamber, on or before a date to be notified to Members not being less than twenty-one days from the date of circulation of the list of retiring Members.
 - (c) Any individual Member or person connected with a Member who is nominated by the Member with which he is connected may be elected, but no person (except retiring members of the Council who are eligible and willing to be re-elected), shall be submitted for election as a Member of the Council unless he shall have agreed in writing to offer him/herself for election and shall have been nominated by two Members of the Chamber.
 - (d) Except in the case of an individual Member, there shall be entered on the nomination paper, in addition to the name of the candidate, his position in the company or firm of which he is the representative.
 - (e) If the number of candidates nominated for election does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, such candidates shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting.
 - (f) If the number of candidates nominated shall exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, the Secretary shall, at least twenty-one days before the day appointed for the Annual General Meeting, issue voting papers to the Members of the Chamber, which shall be returned to the Secretary not less than seven days before the meeting and if not so returned the voting paper will be invalid. Voting papers shall contain the same particulars as are required to be specified in the nomination papers. Each Member may vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled and no more, but no single voting paper shall contain more than one vote for any candidate.
 - (g) Board appointed scrutineers shall, with the assistance of the Secretary, examine the voting papers prior to the Annual General Meeting, and the candidates who have received the greatest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. In the case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
- 15.7 If the Chamber, at the meeting at which an Elected Councillor retires by rotation does not fill the vacancy, the retiring Councillor shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a motion for the re-election of the Councillor is put to the meeting and lost. If an Elected Councillor is not re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place, or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.
- 15.8 No person other than an Elected Councillor retiring by rotation shall be appointed or re-appointed an Elected Councillor at any general meeting unless:
- (a) he/she is recommended by the Board; or
 - (b) not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a Member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Chamber of the intention to propose that person for appointment or reappointment, stating the name and business addresses of that person and particulars of any Member with whom that person is connected together with notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or reappointed.

- 15.9 An individual holding office as a Councillor shall cease to do so if: -
- (a) he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally, or
 - (b) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Chamber stating that their person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting in the capacity of a director of a company and may remain so for more than 3 months; or
 - (c) he/she resigns his office by notice to the Chamber, or
 - (d) he/she is absent for more than three consecutive meetings;
 - i. submitting apologies does not count as having permission for absence from the Council meeting.
 - ii. if a Council Member has been absent without permission of or notification to Council for three consecutive meetings of the Council the Council may resolve that his office be vacated.
- 15.10 A Council Annual Meeting shall be held as soon as practicable after each Annual General Meeting of the Members.
- 15.11 The Council may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. All meetings of the Council shall be convened by the Secretary. The President, the Deputy President or any five members of the Council may at any time require the Secretary to convene a meeting of the Council. Meetings shall be convened by not less than seven days' notice, unless the President may otherwise determine in order to deal with urgent matters in which case three days' notice shall be given. The Council shall meet at least once every three months unless the Council otherwise so decides. At all meetings of the Council each member shall have one vote. In the case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 15.12 The quorum for meeting of the Council shall be 12.
- 15.13 The Secretary will ensure that at least 7 days prior to any Council meetings, Council members are sent a report from the Board on the Chamber activities.

16.0 OFFICERS

- 16.1 The Honorary Officers of the Chamber shall be the President, the Deputy President, the Treasurer, and the President(s) of the Local Area Boards who shall be elected at their individual AGMs.
- 16.2 The President, or failing him/her, the Deputy President or failing him/her, the Honorary Treasurer shall preside at all meetings of the Council. If none of them are present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the members of the Council present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 16.3 The President will normally be expected to occupy that office for two years.
- 16.4 The Deputy President will normally be expected to:
- (i) serve one year in the role of President Elect (but nevertheless styled Deputy President);
 - (ii) then serve two years as President; and
 - (iii) then serve one year in the role of immediate Past President (but nevertheless styled Deputy President).

- 16.5 The Treasurer shall serve for a period of up to four years and can hold office during this period for one year as Deputy President.
- 16.6 In case of any vacancy occurring in the office of President then the vacancy shall be filled by the Deputy President who shall cease to be Deputy President and shall hold office as President for the remainder of the period the person he has succeeded would have continued in office and for the ensuing year.
- 16.7 In the case of any vacancy occurring in the office of Deputy President then the vacancy shall be filled by the Council appointing a Deputy President. If the vacancy has occurred by reason of the Deputy-President taking over the office of President, the individual appointed Deputy-President shall hold office as Deputy-President for the remainder of the period the person he has succeeded would have continued in office and for such further period as his predecessor holds office as President. If the vacancy has occurred for any other reason the individual appointed Deputy-President shall hold office as such for the remainder of the period, the person he has succeeded would have continued in office.

17.0 EXISTING OFFICERS

- 17.1 Any individual who is a Council Member or Officer of the Chamber at the date of adoption of these Articles shall hold that position or office until the Board has reviewed an individual's length of service and experience.

18.0 CHIEF EXECUTIVE AND OTHER STAFF

- 18.1 A Chief Executive may be appointed by the Board for such period, at such remuneration and upon such terms as the Board may think fit, and subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case, may revoke such appointment.
- 18.2 The Chief Executive shall not also be Secretary.
- 18.3 In relation to his/her duties and obligations as a Director of the Chamber, the Chief Executive shall act as Managing Director and exercise such of the powers of the Board as the Board may from time to time consider desirable to be exercised by the Chief Executive. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Board may impose and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered.
- 18.4 In relation to his/her duties and obligations as a Councillor, the Chief Executive in conjunction with the President and other Officers shall be responsible for media relations in connection with representational matters.
- 18.5 The Chief Executive and the staff member responsible for Finance and the staff member responsible for Policy shall attend meetings of the Council and the Chamber but shall not be entitled to vote.

Company secretary

- 18.6 Subject to the provisions of the Acts, the Company Secretary shall be an executive member of the Chamber excluding the Chief Executive, subject to the agreement of the Board. The Company Secretary shall have no duties in relation to the functions of the Council in representational matters save to ensure that meetings are duly convened, minutes are taken and circulated, and proper records are kept.

Employees

- 18.7 The Board shall delegate to the Chief Executive of the Chamber the appointment and management of all employees.
- 18.8 The Board may give allowances and/or benefits to employees.

- 19.1 The Board may appoint (and at their discretion disband) Forums consisting wholly or partly of Members of the Chamber, as they think fit, for the purposes of advising, considering and reporting to the Board on any subjects referred to them for consideration. Any Forum so appointed shall conform to any By-laws or regulations that may be prescribed by the Board. None of the powers, authorities or discretions of the Council shall be delegated to any such Forum.
- 19.2 The Board may, at its discretion, upon the application of Members who desire to associate themselves together in a Section with a view to representing the special interests of Members in a particular trade or other activity, authorise the formation of a Section.
- 19.3 The Board of its own volition and without any application may form a Section.
- 19.4 The Board may recognise as a Section an unincorporated association whose objects are within the powers of the Chamber provided that all its members are Members.
- 19.5 All proceedings of Sections and their relations to and connections with the Board shall be regulated by By-laws to be approved from time to time by the Board.
- 19.6 The Board shall have powers to dissolve any Section of the Chamber if they consider the Section to be no longer representative or useful to the trade, industry or other activity for which it was established, provided that before any Section is dissolved the Secretary shall give at least one month's notice of the Board's intention to the members of the Section so that they may have an opportunity of discussing the matter with the Board.

20.0 LOCAL AREA BOARDS

- 20.1 The Board may, at its discretion, upon the application of Members who desire to associate themselves together in a Section with a view to representing the special interests of Members in a particular area on local matters, authorise the formation of Local Area Boards.
- 20.2 The Board of its own volition and without any application may form a Local Area Board.
- 20.3 The Board may recognise as a Local Area Board an unincorporated association whose objects are within the powers of the Chamber provided that all its members are Members.
- 20.4 All proceedings of Local Area Boards and their relations to and connections with the Board shall be regulated by By-laws to be approved from time to time by the Board.
- 20.5 The Board shall have powers to dissolve any Local Area Board of the Chamber if they consider the Local Area Board to be no longer representative or useful to the area for which it was established, provided that before any Local Area Board is dissolved the Secretary shall give at least one month's notice of the Board's intention to the Members of the Local Area Board so that they may have an opportunity of discussing the matter with the Board.

21.0 BY-LAWS

- 21.1 The Board shall have power to make, alter or revoke By-laws which are not inconsistent with these Articles and which do not reduce the functions of the Council

- 21.2 Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing By-laws may be made, altered or revoked in connection with: -
- (a) Membership (Terms and Conditions)
 - (b) Subscriptions (Pricing)
 - (c) Committees
 - (d) Proceedings of the Council
 - (e) Proceedings of the Board, and
 - (f) Sections.

22.0 ARBITRATION

- 22.1 The Chamber may undertake through its Board or a Committee appointed for the purpose the settlement of disputes arising out of commercial transactions under such regulations as the Council may from time to time direct.

23.0 MINUTES

- 23.1 The Board shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for that purpose of all proceedings at General Meetings of the Chamber, and of the Council, Board, Committees, Sections (if any) and Forums, including the names of Council, Board, Section or forum members present at each such meeting.
- 23.2 All minutes shall be open to inspection by any Director. Minutes of meetings of the Council, any Section and any Forum shall also be open to inspection by Members.

24.0 THE SEAL

- 24.1 The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal of the Chamber. If a document (other than an export related document merely requiring authentication in the ordinary course of routine business) is executed by the Chamber by the affixing of the Seal that affixing shall be witnessed by and signed by a Director and the Secretary or by two Directors. The Board may determine who shall sign any export related document to which the Seal is affixed by way of authentication in the ordinary course of routine business. The Secretary shall keep a register of all documents executed by the Chamber whether by affixing of the Seal or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of Section 44 of the Companies Act 2006. Export related documents to which the Seal is affixed by way of authentication in the ordinary course of routine business shall be recorded in a separate part of that register.

25.0 ACCOUNTS

General

- 25.1 The Directors must make sure that proper accounting records that comply with the Companies Acts are kept to give a true and fair view of the Chamber's affairs and to explain its transactions.
- 25.2 The accounting records must be kept at the Chamber's registered office or at any other place or places which the Companies Acts allow and the Directors decide on.

Right To Inspect

- 25.3 The Chamber's officers always have the right to inspect the accounting records.
- 25.4 A member of the Chamber does not have the right to inspect any books or papers of the Chamber unless:
- a) the Companies Acts give him that right;
 - b) the Directors authorise him to do so; or
 - c) the members of the Chamber authorise him to do so by a decision at a general meeting or by written resolution.
- 25.5 The Directors will arrange for profit and loss accounts, balance and reports to be prepared and distributed to the Chamber's members as required by the Companies Acts.
- 25.6 The accounting records and any other book or document shall be open to the inspection of any Director or Secretary. No Member shall (as such) have any right of inspecting any accounting records or other book or document of the Chamber except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Board or by any ordinary resolution of the Chamber.

26.0 AUDITORS

- 26.1 Auditors shall be appointed, and their duties regulated in accordance with the Acts. The Auditors shall have the right at their discretion to attend any meeting of the Board.

27.0 INDEMNITY

- 27.1 Subject to section 232 of the 1985 Act, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Director may otherwise be entitled, each Director or other officer of the Chamber (other than any person (whether an officer or not) engaged by the Chamber as auditor) shall be indemnified out of the Chamber's assets against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him/her in the execution of his duties, or in relation thereto including any liability incurred by him/her in defending any civil or criminal proceedings, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on his part or in connection with any application in which the court grants him/her relief from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Chamber's affairs.
- 27.2 The Chamber may buy and maintain insurance against any liability falling upon its Director or other officers which arises out of their respective duties to the Chamber or in relation to its affairs.
- 27.3 The Chamber shall have express power to purchase and maintain for any such Director or the Secretary insurance against any such liability, and if the power is exercised the fact shall be stated in the Directors' Report in accordance with the provision of the Acts.

28.0 WINDING-UP

- 28.1 The Company shall be wound up voluntarily whenever a special resolution is passed that the Company be wound up any surplus assets remaining after the payment of the Chamber's liabilities shall be apportioned equally among all Members, or if the Members agree by vote, the surplus shall be given or transferred to some other body (whether or not it is a Member of the Chamber) having objects similar to those of the Chamber, or to another body, the objects of which are charitable.

29.0 ALTERATION OF ARTICLES

- 29.1 No alteration shall be made in these Articles except by special resolution at a General Meeting of Members of which not less than fourteen clear days' notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution shall have been duly given.
