- Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme. All UK employers will be able to access support to continue paying part of their employees' salary for those employees that would otherwise have been laid off during this crisis.

All UK businesses are eligible and HMRC will reimburse 80% of furloughed workers wage costs, up to a cap of £2,500 per month. Further details: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/claim-for-wage-costs-through-the-coronavirus-job-retention-scheme>

- Self-Employed Support Package - The Self-employment Income Support Scheme (SEISS) will support self-employed individuals (including members of partnerships) who have lost income due to coronavirus.

- Coronavirus Business Interruption Loan Scheme (CBILS) - Smaller businesses from all sectors can apply for the full amount of the facility. To be eligible under CBILS, an SME must:

- Be UK based in its business activity, with turnover of no more than £45m per year
- Have a borrowing proposal which, were it not for the current pandemic, would be considered viable by the lender, and for which the lender believes the provision of finance will enable the business to trade out of any short-to-medium term difficulty. If the lender can offer finance on normal commercial terms without the need to make use of the scheme, they will do so.

CBILS is available through the British Business Bank's 40+ accredited lenders and partners, which are listed on the British Business Bank website - www.british-business-bank.co.uk

- COVID-19 Corporate Financing Facility. A new lending facility from the Bank of England to help support larger firms, helping them bridge coronavirus disruption to their cash flows through loans. These measures will mean no businesses will automatically forfeit their lease and be forced out of their premises if they miss a payment up until 30 June. There is the option for the government to extend this period if needed. This is not a rental holiday. All commercial tenants will still be liable for the rent but are protected from eviction if they are unable to pay the rent.
